ERASMUS STUDENT CHARTER http://ec.europa.eu/education/erasmus/doc1057_en.htm

“To promote Erasmus students' awareness of their rights and obligations, each Erasmus student will receive an Erasmus Student Charter from their home university before leaving for the study period abroad. The Charter is a short information leaflet that tells Erasmus students what they are entitled to and also what they are expected to do during their secondment.”

“The Erasmus Student Charter outlines the basic entitlements of the Erasmus students, such as free tuition and full recognition of studies abroad. The Charter also specifies the main obligations of the Erasmus students, providing them with a concise idea of their duties in respect to both their home and host universities. It will be issued to all Erasmus students by their home universities before they leave for their study period abroad.”

Postal address & Visiting address on the main Campus:

El. Venizelou Avenue, 70
 GR – 176 76 KALLITHEA

The El. Venizelou Ave. was previously called Thisseos Ave. The name is still in use by many people.

The main gate is on El. Venizelou Ave. in the middle of a park, between Evangelistrias Str. on the N.E. and Charokopou Str. on the S.W.

The closest Metro Station (at ~8 minutes walking distance) is TAVROS – El. Venizelos, on Metro Line1 - Green Line Piraeus – Kifisia.

see ACCESS <http://www.hua.gr/index.php/en/university/access>

FROM TAVROS STATION ON METRO LINE 1/GREEN LINE

Getting off at TAVROS Station, you choose Exit to Pan. Tsaldaris Str., Take Agion Pantou Str. in front of you, to Venizelou (Thisseos) Ave.

Then, (there is a church on your right hand) turn left, and at the crossroads with Charokopou Str. you are at the southern corner of Harokopio University Campus.

See the Map, and alternative routes at <http://www.hua.gr/index.php/en/university/access>

*If you launch a search on the web with the key word “map of Athens”, El. Venizelou Avenue may be mentioned as Leof(oros) El. Benizelou

The Students' Advisory Center welcome students for matters related to personal development, cross-cultural matters, offering support on an individual basis but also in group workshops, contributing to the integration of the mobile student into the student community.

<http://www.hua.gr/index.php/en/services297/studentshelpcentre>

5.3. THE STUDENT CULTURAL SOCIETIES

Harokopio University students are constantly rushing with their activities to keep up the youthful spirit of the University. On their own initiative, work and passion, expand and complement the educational nature of the academic community by creating societies that match their interests and concerns. So far the following groups have been operated:

- Dance Society
- Theatre Society
- Sports Society
- Photo Society
- Martial Arts Society

They also, occasionally, organize their own activities, expressing their concerns and keeping the youthful spirit active in Harokopio University.

The agenda of the student community includes events such as excursions, political discussions, theatrical performances and film viewings.

In the last years, the Harokopio University students organize with great success the HAROKOPIO STUDENT FESTIVAL and the CHRISTMAS CHARITY BAZAAR.

Last but not least, a student team edits the periodical "To Vathaki tou Charokopeiou" – ("Harokopio University's Reverb") where at least one column is devoted to Erasmus mobility matters. Erasmus guest students are encouraged to become member of the Student Press Team or at least to give a paper or an interview.

5.4. SCIENTIFIC & CULTURAL ACTIVITIES AND EVENTS

Harokopio University as organizing and host institution of scientific & cultural activities and events

Due to the dynamic involvement of Harokopio University's components (the academic and administrative units & services as well as the Faculty individually) in many cooperation, scientific & cultural networks and projects, and thanks to the strong encouragement of the University Authorities, meetings, congresses, events are regularly organized on the campus.

Moreover, in compliance with its public relations policy and regarding its excellent infrastructures and advantageous location, Harokopio University is regularly preferred for hosting scientific and cultural activities and events.

6. LESSONS OF GREEK LANGUAGE ON-LINE

Filoglossia

Learning Greek as a foreign language-Level: Beginners

<http://www.xanthi.ilsp.gr/filog/>

The Thrace Branch (created in 1996) of ILSP - The Institute for Language and Speech Processing (ILSP) is a research organization under the auspices of the General Secretariat for Research and Technology (Ministry of Development) with the aim to support the development of Language Technology

Web-based lessons of Modern Greek, developed by the Institute for Language and Speech Processing (www.ilsp.gr) and offered free of charge to Greeks of the Diaspora or to foreigners, who wish to learn Greek and have no previous knowledge of the language. Based on everyday-life situations, which are supported by video and audio files with native speakers of Greek, these lessons help the user acquire the necessary language skills, in order to successfully communicate in potential communicative situations (e.g. visiting a doctor, going to a taverna, going shopping, telephone conversation etc.).

“Learning Greek on the Web” employs English as the support language, and is based on the language material of the multimedia CD-ROM series “filoglossia+”, which has been developed by the Educational Technology Department of the Institute for Language and Speech Processing (for more information, please visit <http://www.ilsp.gr/filoglossia+.html>). The basic features of the lessons are summarized below:

- Attractive and friendly user-interface
- Plenty of video and audio files (with the participation of native speakers)
- Links between texts and video
- Translation in English
- Oral and written speech comprehension exercises
