2013 JURY MEMBERS

PRIZE 2013 INNOVATION Universal Biotech

PRIZE

A prize of up to 100 000 € including cash and consulting services will be provided to support the most innovative project. The Innovation Prize is open to small and medium enterprises and academic researchers. This prize will be awarded after a selection process and a critical evaluation of candidates' applications by an expert jury.

Universal Biotech will provide consulting services to the winner throughout their product development and market access.

All applicants increase their visibility in each step of the selection of the Prize and at the Innovation Days 2013 (poster, oral communication, book presentation).
